

Brookhaven Cheerleading Program Code of Conduct

As a cheerleader, I understand that by signing this Code of Conduct for the Brookhaven Cheerleading Program that I acknowledge the guidelines and expectations of the program. I may not agree with all aspects of these terms but am choosing to participate and therefore understand that failure to adhere to these guidelines and expectations could and will result in removal from the Brookhaven Cheerleading Program.

As a cheerleader, I agree to hold myself in the highest regards as a leader, role model, and representative of myself, my family, my community, my coach, and my school. I understand that by failing to do this could and will result in removal from the Brookhaven Cheerleading Program.

As a parent/guardian, I understand that by signing this Code of Conduct for the Brookhaven Cheerleading Program that I acknowledge the guidelines and expectations of the program. I may not agree with all aspects of these terms but am choosing to participate and therefore understand that failure to adhere to these guidelines and expectations could and will result in removal from the Brookhaven Cheerleading Program.

As a parent/guardian, I agree to represent myself, my family, and my cheerleader appropriately at all practices and events. I understand that by failing to do this could and will result in removal from practices, or events involving the Brookhaven Cheerleading Program.

As cheerleaders, parents, and guardians, we understand the consequences of failure to uphold the guidelines and expectations of the Brookhaven Cheerleading Program. We commit to maintain accordance to these guidelines and expectations for the duration of the cheerleading season as outlined in the 2010-2011 Brookhaven Cheerleading Program Guidelines.
